

National Catholic Youth Conference Thoughts:

The Tipton CYO will be attending the National Catholic Youth Conference from November 19-22 in Kansas City. We have been preparing for this trip for the past two years.

Here is some of what our kids are looking forward to on the retreat:

"I am so excited to go to NCYC with the rest of our parish. It is overwhelming seeing how many people come together to praise our God. A big thank-you to the city of Tipton for all of your support. We know your prayers will be with us."

"I'm excited to see all the people in the coliseum and when everyone pulls out their phones and wave them around. I'm excited to see the big city and the hotels. I'm excited to hear the music and the speakers."

Thank you for your support of CYO.

Vocation Thought:

"Let the little children come to me and do not stop them." Are you being called to bring others to Christ and His Kingdom as a priest, deacon, sister or brother? Call Fr. Damian or Fr. Jarett Konrade (825-827-8746) or write voca-tions@salinadiocese.org

How to Receive Communion More Worthily:

It takes an entire week to prepare to receive communion at Sunday Mass.

Regular Prayer and Scripture reading. Both allow the Holy Spirit to work within us and foster a love of Jesus.

Faithful and loving fulfillment of the duties and responsibilities of our state in life. It is by faithfully living out the Call of the Gospel in our daily lives that we grow in charity and grow closer to Je-

Daily repentance of sin and regular participation in the Sacrament of Penance. A daily Act of Contrition helps guide our repentance and fosters holiness of life. When we are aware of a mortal sin on our soul, we go to confession so that we can freely approach the altar next Sunday.

LIVING FAITH REFLECTION

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Amen, I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it. (Mark 10:15)

Once, long ago, life was getting to me, so I tossed my toddler daughter in the car, and we took off for the beach. I didn't even make clear to her where we were going. We just went.

We arrived, and she played, delighted as I sat and pondered. All this time, she had never questioned where we were going, never fought it. She had just come along for the ride, accepting and happy.

I could have seen naivete in her acceptance, and perhaps that is one way to look at it. But at the time, I simply saw trust. Trust in where I was taking her, because she trusted that I loved her and would only want the best for her.

Like God's love for me, can I accept where he takes me?

Lord I trust you and welcome your reign of love in my life.

-Amy Welborn

If you liked this reflection, pick up a "Living Faith" book available in the vestibule.

Word of Life:

The bishop's conference views health care as a basic right belonging to all human beings, from conception to natural death. Much-needed reform must not become a vehicle for promoting an "abortion rights" agenda or reversing longstanding current policies against federal abortion mandates and funding. In this sense, we urge you to make this legislation "abortion neutral" by preserving longstanding federal policies that prevent government promotion of abortion and respect conscience rights." -Justin Cardinal Kigali, July 29, 2009
